

City of Bellevue

Proclamation

- Whereas: The City of Bellevue is fortunate to be the center for many dedicated and talented musicians whose creative expressions enrich our cultural life; and
- Whereas: Bellevue Chamber Chorus, established in the fall of 1984, and among the first chamber-sized groups on the Eastside, has since evolved into an artistic institution instrumental in building the arts scene on the Eastside over its 35-year history; and
- Whereas: Bellevue Chamber Chorus has collaborated and performed with many other regional groups, including the Bellevue Youth Choirs, Kirkland Choral Society, Seattle Symphony, and Sammamish Symphony; and
- Whereas: Bellevue Chamber Chorus has performed nationally and internationally, and has represented Bellevue as choral arts ambassadors when touring, most recently in Canada and France; and
- Whereas: Bellevue Chamber Chorus has enriched and enhanced the lives of Bellevue's children and families at community public events such as Garden d'Lights at the Botanical Garden; and
- Whereas: Bellevue Chamber Chorus will mark the finale of its 35th anniversary season this spring with a celebratory concert, showcasing beloved repertoire from the past 35 seasons.

Now, therefore, I, John Chelminiak, Mayor of the City of Bellevue, Washington, and on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim April 14, 2019 as:

BELLEVUE CHAMBER CHORUS DAY

in Bellevue, and I commend the group for its 35-year commitment to providing professional quality, critically acclaimed performances of diverse choral music for the community.

John Chelminiak, Mayor
City of Bellevue
